NARRATIVE:

Michael Alarcon is a sex offender and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include continuous sexual abuse of a child, failing to register as a sex offender, possession of controlled substances, theft and driving without a license. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 16 year term for the continuous sexual abuse of a child. Alarcon was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 16, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Alarcon qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for failing to register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
